

A dramatic photograph of a bright sun breaking through a thick layer of dark, heavy clouds. Sunbeams, or crepuscular rays, fan out from the sun, illuminating the scene and highlighting the texture of the clouds. The overall mood is one of hope and divine light breaking through darkness.

Living in the Light of His Coming

Romans 13:11-14

1) We Need To Wake Up: v.11

The Encyclopedia Britannica defines sleep as “a state of inactivity, with a loss of consciousness and a decrease in responsiveness to events taking place.”

Eph. 5:14; “Awake, sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

A dramatic sky scene with a bright sun at the top center, casting rays of light through dark, heavy clouds. The light creates a strong contrast, highlighting the edges of the clouds and creating a sense of hope and breakthrough.

2) We Need To Throw Off: v.12

3) We Need To Walk Properly: v.13

Ephesians tells us we are to walk:

- a) We are to walk worthy of our calling: 4:1
- b) We are to walk differently: 4:17
- c) We are to walk in love: 5:1
- d) We are to walk as children of light: 5:8
- e) We are to walk circumspectly, diligently and carefully: 5:15

A dramatic photograph of a bright sun breaking through a thick layer of dark, heavy clouds. Sunbeams, or crepuscular rays, fan out from the sun, illuminating the scene and highlighting the texture of the clouds. The overall mood is one of hope and divine light breaking through darkness.

4) We Need To Put On Christ: v.14